Optimization of DKSH's management structure

Zurich, Switzerland, June 6, 2013 – With the entry of Bruno Sidler as COO at the beginning of February 2013, DKSH has strengthened its management team in order to support the implementation of its strategy for sustainable, profitable growth. After his successful introduction, the operational heads of the four Business Units Consumer Goods, Healthcare, Performance Materials and Technology now report to Bruno Sidler, who in turn reports to the CEO, Joerg Wolle.

The Business Unit Technology will be repositioned within the COO responsibility. The current head of the Technology unit, Adrian Eberle, is leaving the company. On an interim basis, the Business Unit will be led by Bruno Sidler. Details regarding the development of DKSH's business activities will be published with the Half-Year Report on August 13, 2013.

About DKSH Group

DKSH is the leading Market Expansion Services provider with a focus on Asia. As the term "Market Expansion Services" suggests, DKSH helps other companies and brands to grow their business in new or existing markets.

Publicly listed on the SIX Swiss Exchange since March 2012, DKSH is a global company headquartered in Zurich. With 680 business locations in 35 countries – 660 of them in Asia – and 25,900 specialized staff, DKSH generated net sales of CHF 8.8 billion in 2012.

The company offers a tailor-made, integrated portfolio of sourcing, marketing, sales, distribution, and after-sales services. It provides business partners with expertise as well as on-the-ground logistics based on a comprehensive network of unique size and depth. Business activities are organized into four specialized Business Units that mirror DKSH fields of expertise: Consumer Goods, Healthcare, Performance Materials, and Technology.

With strong Swiss heritage, the company has nearly a 150-year-long tradition of doing business in and with Asia, and is deeply rooted in communities and businesses across Asia Pacific.
