DKSH Thailand helps Thai children in need in Chonburi

DKSH, the leading Marketing Expansion Services provider with a focus on Asia, together with its long-term partner Right To Play Foundation, helps underprivileged children in Thailand by donating goods such as clothes, personal care products and toys to Human Help Network Foundation children's shelter in Chonburi.

Bangkok, Thailand, October 17, 2017 – Many underprivileged children in Thailand have limited or no access to necessities such as clothes, personal care products and toys. DKSH together with Right To Play Foundation gathered around 160 boxes filled with goods that were donated by DKSH employees to help underprivileged Thai children at Human Help Network Foundation children's shelter in Chonburi in Thailand. DKSH continuously engages its 11,000 specialists and business partners in Thailand to frequently organize social contribution events.
