DKSH promotes specialty chemicals portfolio at Chinaplas 2016

DKSH, the leading Market Expansion Services provider with a focus on Asia, showcases its specialty chemicals portfolio and key clients at Chinaplas 2016 in Shanghai.

Shanghai, China, April 20, 2016 – DKSH's Business Unit Performance Materials, a leading Market Expansion Services provider and distributor of plastics and rubber, will exhibit at Chinaplas 2016 in Shanghai. The event, which showcases intelligent production lines and systems, industrial robots, high performance materials, composite materials, latest and most complete recycling solutions as well as other plastics and rubber technology breakthroughs within the industry, will be held at the Shanghai New International Expo Centre from April 25-28, 2016.

DKSH will exhibit at stand E09 in hall C9, where senior sales executives from DKSH will be present throughout the show to promote and discuss high performance chemical products and innovations from their extensive product portfolios.

DKSH's areas of expertise include: engineering-plastics from DSM, adsorbents from Axens, nucleating agents from Towrex, pigments from Mazda, flame retardants from Otsuka, waxes (PE, anti-ozone and rice bran waxes) as well as the Luna additives portfolio (anti-oxidants, UV absorbers, brighteners, plasticizers and flame retardants).

"On the occasion of Chinaplas 2016, the largest plastics and rubber trade fair in Asia, DKSH is extremely pleased to exhibit and feature four key innovative and high-potential product ranges from our valued key clients and suppliers, as well as our own innovative product portfolio. We look forward to a successful show," commented Kevin Bee, General Manager, Business Unit Performance Materials, DKSH China.
