DKSH promotes key clients' brands at Food Ingredient China 2015

DKSH, the leading Market Expansion Services provider with a focus on Asia, partners with renowned nutritional health food and dietary supplement manufacturers to showcase their brands and product concepts at the Food Ingredient China 2015 (FIC).

Shanghai, China, April 1, 2015 – DKSH Business Unit Performance Materials, a leading Market Expansion Services provider for specialty chemicals and food ingredients, exhibits together with Wacker, Ceamsa, Eurovanille, OmniActive, Horphag, Oleon, Polygal and The Wright Group at the FIC, the largest professional food additives and food ingredients exhibition held in Shanghai from April 1 to April 3, 2015.

Senior executives of each company will be present and provide detailed information on their product concepts. The showcased product portfolios include curcumin and cyclodextrin-based products from Wacker, natural vanilla products from Eurovanille, lutein and high potency ginger from OmniActive and Pycnogenol® from Horphag.

"We are delighted to partner with renowned nutritional health food and dietary supplement manufacturers and support them with our Market Expansion Services to launch and establish more of their products in China," commented Kevin Bee, Acting General Manager, Business Unit Performance Materials, China and Hong Kong.
