Bangkok, June 7, 2017 – DKSH, the leading Market Expansion Services provider with a focus on Asia, on Friday hosted DKSH Charity Day to raise funds and donation goods from employees. At the event, Douglas Humphrey, Head Country Management, DKSH (Thailand) Limited, presented a donation check of THB 171,072 to Right To Play Foundation. The event was organized under the theme “Touching Thai lives since 1906.”

DKSH's long-term partner Right To Play supports Thai children in rural schools through life skills play-based activities. Throughout DKSH's more than 150 years of history, being a responsible corporate citizen has been the foundation of its success. DKSH is deeply rooted in the communities it serves through its activities in Asian countries. The company creates opportunities and developments across society.

DKSH has supported Right To Play in Thailand since 2006. Right To Play reached 15,000 children in 200 schools and 400 young people in juvenile detention centers through play-based learning activities. In addition to monetary donations, DKSH has supported the organization through voluntary work offered by its employees and currently hosts Right To Play's local office at DKSH's company campus in Bangkok.
