Price Increase Announced for Some Specific Hygiene Product Lines

Basel, Switzerland, 11 January 2018 – Due to an increase of raw material costs, effective 1 February 2018 or later, as dictated by the terms of individual contracts, Lonza's Specialty Ingredients businesses will implement list and off-list price increases for its registered and unregistered quaternary ammonium products globally.

Lonza is committed to ensuring security of supply and working diligently with all of our customers to minimize the impact of these market developments.

About Lonza

Following the closing of the Capsugel acquisition, Lonza further strengthened its position as one of the world's leading and most-trusted suppliers to the pharmaceutical, biotech and specialty ingredients markets. Lonza harnesses science and technology to create products that support safer and healthier living and that enhance the overall quality of life.

An integrated solutions provider serving the healthcare continuum, Lonza offers products and services from the custom development and manufacturing of active pharmaceutical ingredients to innovative dosage forms for the pharma and consumer health and nutrition industries. In addition to drinking water sanitizers, nutraceuticals, antidandruff agents and other personal care ingredients, the company provides agricultural products, advanced coatings and composites and microbial control solutions that combat dangerous viruses, bacteria and other pathogens.

Founded in 1897 in the Swiss Alps, Lonza today is a well-respected global company with more than 50 major manufacturing and R&D facilities and nearly 14,000 full-time employees worldwide. Further information can be found at www.lonza.com.
