Press release

Baar-Zug, 1 February 2008

Partners Group recognized as Private Equity Fund of Funds House of the Year at the EVCJ Awards 2007

Partners Group, the Switzerland-based global alternative asset manager, was awarded "Fund of Funds House of the Year" at the EVCJ Awards 2007, which are presented by the European Venture Capital & Private Equity Journal (EVCJ).

At the presentation of the awards by the Rt Hon William Hague MP, Partners Group was commended for "an extremely busy and exciting year, edging ahead of its fellow nominees as a result of its constant innovation, continued expansion into new geographies and its ever burgeoning range of products."

Alfred Gantner, Executive Chairman of Partners Group, comments "We are delighted to have been recognized at the prestigious EVCJ Awards 2007. We believe that our outstanding long-term track record, based on our integrated private equity asset management approach of combining fund investments with secondaries and directs, is the foundation for our continued successful business development. Partners Group today has a true global reach and presence with over 270 employees based in 7 offices around the world."
