Café DKSH 2019 stands out with eight new endorsements

At the 9th Café DKSH event, DKSH Hong Kong's Gourmet Fine Food (GFF) Business Line introduced eight new artisan ingredients, ranging from dairy, chocolate to bakery products.

Hong Kong, October 11, 2019 - DKSH, the leading Market Expansion Services provider with a focus on Asia, held its annual Café DKSH event at the Hong Kong Ritz Carlton Hotel in September. Over 100 selected guests, comprising executive and pastry chefs, buyers, restaurant owners and HORECA representatives attended the gathering. Café DKSH facilitates the dialogue between clients, customers and industry experts of various sectors about new creations and formulae.

The event served as a platform for several signature brands. Among the presented were Emborg from Denmark and Flechard from France, for their silky-smooth dairy, Casa Luker from Columbia and Lindt from Switzerland to give customers the opportunity to experience a new chocolate adventure as well as IRCA, Alipro, Lubeca and Panidor for their assortment of pastry and bakery products.

Three guest chefs: Andy Li from Andy's Workshop, Fabio Birondi, Director of IRCA Academy and Thomas Lui from Thomas Trillion, have used these finest ingredients to create a dessert feast. Prior to stepping into the venue, visitors were greeted with the finest canapés created by the Ritz Carlton banquet team with core ingredients. The creation included Aljomar's 24 months Iberico ham, Masse's French foie gras and Davigel's IQF shellfish and prawn, complemented by a refreshing drink blended with La Fruitière frozen fruit puree and T2 tea and accompanied with a milk foam tea using Ostentberg fruit crush.

Sharon Lee, Vice President Gourmet Fine Foods, DKSH Hong Kong expressed her enthusiasm for the event: "Thanks to our valuable partners, Café DKSH is a good platform which brings customers and clients together and allows them to expose themselves to innovative ideas and inspirations. It is a valuable opportunity to widen horizons."
