DKSH relocates its branch office in Hanoi

DKSH, the leading Market Expansion Services provider with a focus on Asia, has relocated its Hanoi branch office to a larger, more modern facility to further enhance its internal efficiencies and strengthen its market-leading position.

Hanoi, November 11, 2019 – DKSH reaches another significant milestone in its expansion and development history in Vietnam. After the recent relocation of its representative office in HCMC and its branch office in Danang, it is now its branch office in Hanoi that will be moved to a larger, more centrally located working space in the Peakview Tower, Dong Da District.

Located strategically in the center of Hanoi with a broad view over Hoang Cau Lake and the whole city, DKSH's new branch office provides a convenient location and modern facilities for the benefit of its employees, clients and customers. Its state-of-the-art workspace design fosters collaboration and innovation, while incorporating elements of DKSH's long history in Vietnam.

“As the leading Market Expansion Services provider, our new upgraded branch office enables us to respond to the high growth in the demand for companies to expand their new or existing business in Vietnam and in particular in Hanoi and the areas of Northern Vietnam,” commented Jorge Martin-Martinez, Vice President, Head Country Management, Vietnam & Indochina Finance. “More than anything, this move represents our continued and firm commitment to Vietnam, our employees and our business partners, paving the way for further growth in the years to come”.
